

DOUGLAS' SOUTHERN TOUR.
I am reliably assured that Mr. Douglas' Southern campaign tour, so far from being a success, has done himself and his cause infinite damage. He has been so violent and abusive of Breckinridge, to the point of insulting the people of the South, that he has lost the confidence of the people of the South, and is now regarded as a man who is not only unwelcome, but who is a danger to the peace of the country. He has been so violent and abusive of Breckinridge, to the point of insulting the people of the South, that he has lost the confidence of the people of the South, and is now regarded as a man who is not only unwelcome, but who is a danger to the peace of the country.

His speeches in Virginia have had the same effect, and Ex-Gov. Smith feels now assured, since the palpable evidence of a degrading coalition between Bell and Douglas, that the Old Dominion is safe for Breckinridge. The Bell men, in their last-monthed zeal for the Little Giant, have exposed the plot, and the people, who always have and desire unprincipled coalition, whose only object is the spoils, have taken their alarm.

VERMONT AND MAINE.
The State of Vermont voted to-day, and will doubtless give a good account of itself. Maine votes on Monday, and I see that a Portland correspondent of the New York Herald is preparing the minds of the coalitionists for an overwhelming defeat there.

PENNSYLVANIA AND THE NORTHWEST.
Pennsylvania and the Northwest are already virtually abandoned, and the last hope of the coalition is based upon Lincoln's defeat in New York—an event not likely to occur.

NEW YORK.
The Tribune promises not less than 325,000 votes for Lincoln in that State, which are sufficient to elect him over any opposition.

MARYLAND.
Just on the eve of the visit of the Little Giant to Maryland, it is painful to witness the heartburnings and quarreling of the Maryland Democracy.

Last night there was a Douglas Democratic Convention held in Baltimore, but even this body failed to agree upon a nomination for Mayor, and after much wrangling broke up in disorder, and with the exhibition of any amount of bad feeling.

MISCELLANEOUS.
I collect the following items from various sources: Advice from Kentucky represents that Mr. Crittenden will make a speech after that of Mr. Breckinridge. Information from Breckinridge leaders at Harrisburg, is to the effect that their candidate is gaining ground in that State. I hear of some betting here against odds, by sharp Maryland politicians, that Breckinridge will carry that State. In the circle of Mr. Cobb's friends, it is stated that Mr. Douglas's recent position of forcing a sovereign State to comply with the laws, etc., will excite great hostility on the part of those States where it is held that a State shall not be forced.

A very prominent citizen from Alabama, whose calm observation and judgment give character to his views, expresses the opinion that Mr. Breckinridge will carry that State. The most reliable politician in Missouri writes positively that Douglas will not carry that State. R. P. Dick, U. S. District Attorney, called the Raleigh Douglas meeting together, yet his head is not off. John I. Green will not be Marshal of the Western District of Tennessee.—Cin. Gazette.

Political.
INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 28.
Hon. Tom Corwin arrived here to-day.

Hon. Frank Blair, Ex-Gov. Chase and many other distinguished speakers are expected to-night.

Intelligence received from all parts of this and many places in adjoining States, indicate that the Republican demonstration to-morrow will be the largest political gathering ever held in the Northwest.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.
Robert N. Murray was nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Third District, held at Kankakee to-day.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.
The various Democratic Nominating Conventions have been in session to-day, and there has been considerable excitement.

John Broadhead, President of the Camden & Atlantic Railroad, was nominated for Congress by the Second District Convention.

John Kline, a Douglas man, was nominated in the Third District; Wm. Morgan (Douglas) in the Fourth District; and Wm. E. Lehman (Douglas) in the First District. Tom Florence was his chief competitor. There has been no division in the First District, as was supposed would result from the defeat of Mr. Florence.

LAFAYETTE, Aug. 28.
Frank P. Blair arrived here this evening, on route for Indianapolis.

He is now addressing an enthusiastic audience at the Court House.

The Wide-Awakes in large numbers are parading the streets in their first torchlight procession, making a brilliant display.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 28.
Gov. Letcher publishes a letter stating that as there is no hope of success with two Democratic candidates, he will unhesitatingly support Mr. Douglas.

5,000 GAIN IN VERMONT.—In claiming a Republican gain of 3,000 in Vermont, our figures were much too low.—The reported majority for Gov. Fairbanks, is 22,000. Last year, Gov. Hall, his Republican predecessor, had a majority of only 16,868. This shows a gain of over five thousand! That will do for the opening gun of the campaign.

Chingampji.

Mr. Hon. John Bell has written a letter declining to give any new declaration of principles. He wishes to be judged solely by his past political acts and opinions.

There is not a neutral nor an independent paper in all the North, that does not, by implication, admit that Lincoln will be elected. It is said, "straws show which way the wind blows," and this is more than a small straw.

Speaker Orr, of South Carolina, has written a letter in which he says: "Lincoln and Hamlin, the Black Republican nominees, will be elected in November next." They are all getting to think so.

In a recent letter, defining his position, that pink of chivalry, Roger A. Pryor, says he was "always opposed to his (Douglas) dogma of Squatter Sovereignty." Yet, he says he had confidence in Douglas' patriotism, and would have supported him in the event of his nomination with the sanction of party usage. "Nevertheless, (he says) I must support Mr. Breckinridge, and for reasons that are perfectly satisfactory to my own judgment."

Hon. John Corde, of Pennsylvania, in a speech delivered at Cleveland on the 17th inst., gave the following reason for declining a reelection to Congress: "I have declined a reelection for Congress on your account.—When Abe Lincoln is elected, as he will be as sure as November comes, my occupation will be gone; there will be no need of an investigator, for there will be no corruptions to disclose."

The nomination of a full electoral and State ticket by the Breckinridge party of New York, and a very strong one, has removed the last lingering hope of the Douglasites to carry that State. They now give it up in despair.

The Lyons Advocate has at last come out for Breckinridge and Lane. This is the only paper in To up supporting that ticket, though it is understood that another will soon be established at Davenport.

At a late Republican mass meeting in St. Clair County, Illinois, among the banners borne in the procession, was one—"Here are the Democrats of 1856," after which followed a large party of men who voted for Buchanan, but will vote for Lincoln.

The Pittsburgh Gazette says there are one hundred and forty-six papers in that State now supporting the Republican candidates, which opposed Fremont and the Republican party in 1856. Of all the Fillmore papers, there are, says the Gazette, but two which now support Bell and Everett. Lincoln is said of an overwhelming majority in the old Keystone State.

Let every man who loves freedom better than slavery, who loves industry, intelligence, and prosperity, better than idleness, ignorance, and poverty, vote for the Republican ticket; by so doing he will surely aid in promoting the moral and material wealth and happiness of the poor and laboring classes of his country. The true patriot has but one party, the people; he has but one aim—their greatest good.

Hear what the Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy (Douglas organ) says the little giant saw and did: "Mr. Douglas saw the injustice of the Missouri Compromise to the South, hence through his instrumentality it was repealed and slavery extended from 36 degrees and 30 minutes to the 36th parallel North latitude."

The Memphis Avalanche keeps the following standing at the head of its leading column in large letters: "We understand that Hon. Emerson Etheridge made a speech in Dresden, Tenn., during which he read the Black Republican platform, and asked if there was any man present who could find fault with it. He further said that the election of Lincoln on that platform, would give peace to the country, whilst Breckinridge's would dissolve the Union."

John Tyler, Jr., seems to have two conscientious beliefs, the first of which is very correct, and the other very absurd. He writes: "I will stand to the Cincinnati Enquirer, that as matters now stand, I conscientiously believe that Lincoln will be elected President, and that dissolution is inevitable."

Judge Wilson of Chicago has written a letter urging Americans to vote for Lincoln. He has been a prominent member of the American party, but now says he cannot see the least chance for either Messrs. Bell or Everett, even should the election go to the House.

The N. Y. Times says that Mr. Douglas is to stump the State of Virginia—to give the people of the Old Dominion some interesting discourses on the subject of Popular Sovereignty. The Times insists that the Judge will be on hand just in time to "point out the inevitable tendency of Gov. Wise's doctrine of protection for slavery in the Territories," and hopes he will stay in the South until the election is over.

Some of the Republicans of Ohio are feasting on cheap meat, as we learn from an exchange that a young Douglas butcher in Tinbury, furnishes some of his Republican customers with good steak at seven cents per pound, and waits for his pay till Douglas is elected. Cheap enough.

The following conundrum is supposed to have emanated from a Black Republican: Why are Lincoln and Hamlin like a duck's? Why? Because they are above de-feet, (defeat).

There is a political Club in Philadelphia known as the "Continental." They number twenty-three hundred. In '56 they were organized as "minute men," and were all for Fillmore. Now they are for Lincoln, and are doing the same active work as then.

The N. Y. Herald says of Douglas' Concord speech: "In the main, this speech of Mr. Douglas reminds us of a famous speech on slavery question, delivered in Congress many years ago by Mr. McDowell, then a member of the House from Maryland. An outsider, who had been among his listeners, seized the opportunity of the adjournment to express to a colleague of the orator a very high opinion of the speech. "Oh, yes," was the response, "I always said that speech of the Governor's," says the Enquirer, nor anywhere near that aggressive—Cin. Gaz.

Great is the faith of the Enquirer. It claims a Democratic majority in Maine (how justly to-day's election will show), and says of Ohio: "We believe that state to be entirely safe for Douglas."—Cin. Gaz.

Judge A. S. Sloan has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Tenth District of Wisconsin, now represented by Larabee, Douglas Democrat.

It is conceded among the Breckinridge men in Washington, that Virginia and Maryland will go for Bell.

Maine Election.

The election for State Officers and Members of Congress in Maine took place to-day. The vote is probably the largest ever cast in the State.

Scattering returns, including several of the largest cities and towns, show a Republican gain and indicate the election of the full Republican ticket by a large majority.

Twenty towns heard from early in the evening, gave Washburn (Rep.) for Governor, 2,576 majority.

The following is the result in several of the principal towns for Governor: Portland—Washburne (Rep.) 2,751; Smart (Dem.) 2,290; Barnes (Union) 118.

Bath—Washburne 549; Smart 429. Saco—Washburne 793; Smart 414. Biddeford—Washburne 880; Smart 798.

Rockland—Washburne 761; Smart 584. Belfast—Washburne 590; Smart 46; Barnes 53.

Maine Election.
PORTLAND, September 11.
Two hundred and thirteen towns give Washburne (Rep.) 48,147; Smart (Democrat) 35,025; Barnes (Whig.) 1,240; against, in the same towns last year, Morrill (Rep.) 39,330; Smith (Dem.) 30,054.

The Republican majority is 11,881, against 8,816 last year.

In an increased vote of 14,509, there is a Republican net gain of 3,065. The aggregate vote of the State reaches 120,000, about 20,000 more than last year.

The returns confirm, in every respect, the last night's estimate. All the Republican members of Congress are elected.

The Republicans are celebrating their victory in this city by a torch-light procession, illuminations, etc.

Why will people suffer on and on, groan with the back-ache, grout with the rheumatism, grumble and scold with pains here and pains there, when a few applications of J. L. Curtis' Mammalike Liniment will entirely relieve them? We wonder at it; as we do also that those who are suffering with colds and coughs do not at once cure themselves by using his Compound Syrup of Sassafras. Hundreds have done so, and other hundreds should profit by their example. See advertisement.
